

Madison + Nav

KELOWNA, BC

Madison and Nav met during the end of their junior year of high school. While Madison was born and raised in Kelowna, Nav moved around a lot during childhood before his family settled in the Okanagan Valley. The high school sweethearts dated for eight and a half years before taking the next step in their relationship. As the saying goes, 'home is where the heart is', Nav proposed to Madison at their apartment in the most relaxed and comfortable setting before taking off to Jasper, Alberta for a weekend ski retreat with friends. Madison and Nav planned a romantic and intimate wedding for July 25th.

HOMETOWN NUPTIALS

Though Madison and Nav don't currently live in Kelowna, they wanted to exchange vows in the place that feels like a home away from home. Known as the gateway to the stunning Okanagan Valley, Madison and Nav said, "I do" at a private residence in front of a lush ceremony arch complemented with colourful blooms and reflective waters as the backdrop.

ADVICE TO FUTURE COUPLES

“Focus on each other, enjoy the little moments, and remember the true purpose of the day: to marry the love of your life. Also, practice your vows beforehand.”
